

Fee Operations

Hello! First, let me say welcome to Canaveral National Seashore! I am Lisa Donnelly, Fee Supervisor here at Canaveral. I have been a part of the Canaveral team since 2003, and I have had the privilege of supervising some of the most dedicated and friendly visitor use assistants in the Park Service today.

In our department of Canaveral National Seashore, we consider the visitor to be our most important resource. We want your experience here to be a positive one which meets or exceeds all of your expectations.

If you have any questions, please ask us. We are here for you - customer service is our top priority.
